

Press Release

Lotus Day Spa Face & Body

March 1, 2004

Grand Opening: March 12, 2004 at Market Station, Leesburg

Mariana C. York, a Leesburg resident and 20-year licensed clinical esthetician and skin therapist today announced the opening of Lotus Day Spa, Face & Body at 108 South Street, SE, Suite B, Leesburg, VA 20175. (703) 771-3063. The spa is located in the heart of Leesburg at Market Station, behind Tuskies.

Mariana C. York has trained at renowned skin care institutes in Europe, Canada and the United States. Prior to opening the Lotus Day Spa, Mariana operated a private salon in McLean, V A specializing in intensive anti-aging renewing treatments, micro-dermabrasion, sun damage repair, lymphobiology, and other clinical skin-care treatments. She is an acknowledged professional esthetician who has worked with plastic surgeons and routinely provides lectures and training on clinical skin-care.

The Lotus Day Spa is designed to offer clients personal attention in a small, relaxed, and peaceful environment. Lotus Day Spa offers a variety of clinical skin care treatments and professional massage therapies. All of the estheticians and massage therapists associated with the spa are licensed professionals who have practiced at well known spas and resorts. To accommodate busy lifestyles, Lotus Day Spa carries an exclusive line of clinical skin care products to meet all of your skin-care needs.

"I am excited to open this spa in the heart of Leesburg . . . Lotus Day Spa is a source of innovation in skin care and offers a unique collection of face and body treatments combining the best of spa services with the breakthrough results of advanced skin care technology" said Mariana C. York.

For more information, contact Mariana C. York, Owner and operator.
703-771-3063